RiverTunes Policy and Release Letter

RiverTunes Policy and Release Letter; For the safety and enjoyment of all participants and guests, every person attending any RiverTunes Camp activity must be well behaved and/or not disruptive to the Camp experience of any participants. Any participant or guest who behaves unacceptably (in the sole discretion of RiverTunes Camp Faculty or CampQuarters staff) or who violates any RiverTunes Camp policy or procedure will be asked to leave the premises. The registration of any participant who violates any RiverTunes Camp policy or procedure may be terminated without refund.

(Translation # 1 - You gotta be nice and follow the rules)

By registering for RiverTunes Camp, any Participant hereby releases, waives, and discharges RiverTunes Camp, its directors, officers, representatives, sponsors, partners, employees, and other students and participants (collectively, the "RiverTunes Parties") from any and all liabilities, expenses, damages, losses, judgements, claims or causes of actions in equity or at law, that Participant or personal representatives, may have or hold against any one or more RiverTunes Parties, arising out of any of Participant's activities while attending the RiverTunes Camp.

(Translation # 2 - We make and practice safety and well being as top priorities for all at RiverTunes, but RiverTunes Parties cannot be liable for any accidents that occur to any individual participants while at our Camp).

Participant hereby grants to RiverTunes Camp, for its benefit and for the benefit of others, the non-exclusive and perpetual right to (a) interview, photograph, or otherwise capture the image of a Participant, both in still and motion pictures, (b) record the voice of a Participant, separately and in synchronization with images (c) use and duplicate such photographs or other images, whether in print or video or other formats, and reproduce the voice of a Participant, separately or together with such images for the purposes of Camp promotion. All copies of a Participant's image and voice created or recorded by any one or more of the RiverTunes Parties shall be, at the least, the property of RiverTunes Camp.

(Translation # 3 - You agree to allow us to use images and sounds of your smiling face and joy of playing to share with others)

Participant has read this General Release and Statement of Policies and Procedures and understands the contents and that this release is a necessary condition to Participant's enrollment in RiverTunes Camp. This release shall be binding and enforceable under the laws of the State of California.

(Translation # 4 - You understand and agree to the policy letter - with our thanks)

Sincerely,

The RiverTunes CampQuarters Staff
